KUHLMAN SCORES TWO SHORTHANDED GOALS, P-BRUINS BEAT LEHIGH VALLEY PHANTOMS, 4-3

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final
LEHIGH VALLEY	2	1	0	3
PROVIDENCE	1	3	0	4

PROVIDENCE, R.I. - Karson Kuhlman led the way with two shorthanded goals on Friday night, as the Providence Bruins won their second consecutive game over the Lehigh Valley Phantoms, 4-3. Zach Senyshyn also recorded a multi-point game with two assists on the night. Dan Vladar got the start in goal for Providence, collecting 27 saves in his seventh win of the season.

JAY LEACH, HEAD COACH

"I think we had some good spurts early on, but we also had some mistakes in that first period. Right from the start of the second period, we had a really strong push. I thought we did well for the majority of that period. Getting two shorthanded goals was a huge boost for us. We've done that when given the opportunity and it's really great.

"In the third, we did a really nice job. We knew they would push and we focused on the things we needed to do to close out the game, which got us the two points."

ATLANTIC DIVISION STANDINGS

NEXT GAME

- The P-Bruins will remain in Providence, Rhode Island and take on the Hershey Bears on Saturday, January 25 at Dunkin' Donuts Center. Puck drop is set for 7:05 p.m. ET.

ZACH SENYSHYN - TWO ASSISTS

"I've just been trying to trust the process and know that the points will come when I do the right things. I've just focused on doing the right things from the D-zone all the way through the whole 200 feet.

"We have an offensively explosive team and there's a ton of skill in that room. I know that when we do the right things, we'll be successful.

"It's nice to see us put a couple wins on the board and hopefully we can just build off of that and keep rolling here."
