PROVIDENCE	0	0	1	1
BINGHAMTON	0	2	1	3

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. - The Binghamton Devils scored two second period goals en route to a 3-1 victory over the Providence Bruins on Friday night. Jack Studnicka scored the lone goal for Providence late in the third period. Dan Vladar got the start in goal for the P-Bruins and recorded 22 saves in the loss. Providence outshot Binghamton, 26-25.

JAY LEACH, HEAD COACH

“We had some good and bad in the first period. It was your typical first period after a long break. In the second period, I thought we started playing our game a bit. We had that goal overturned and they scored right after that - usually when that happens it’s a tough hill to climb.

“There were certainly some things we need to improve upon, but I also liked some things I saw tonight. Hopefully we can get a better outing and outcome tomorrow night.”

JACK STUDNICKA - ONE GOAL

“I think we had a lot of chances and at the end of the day we have to bear down on those chances to win the game. We were on the unfortunate end of a couple calls, but that’s not an excuse for us.”

STATS

- With a goal tonight, Jack Studnicka has now scored 15 goals on the season. The 15 goals ranks tied for fifth amongst AHL rookies, while his 31 points ranks sixth.
- With his goal, Studnicka now leads the P-Bruins in points on the season. Paul Carey sits in second place with 30 points on the campaign.
- Cooper Zech recorded the lone assist on the Studnicka goal, his ninth of the season. Zech now has 10 points on the year.
