PROVIDENCE, R.I. - Steven Kampfer netted the game-winning goal and Brendan Gaunce extended his point streak to six games as the Providence Bruins defeated the Wilkes Barre/Scranton Penguins, 2-1, on Sunday afternoon. The victory marks the fifth consecutive win for Providence. Zach Senyshyn also scored for Providence, while Max Lagace made 20 saves in his 20th win of the season.

JAY LEACH, HEAD COACH

“These are big points because these teams are chasing us. That team plays really hard and that goalie always plays well against us. They were a tall task for us.

“We were beneficiaries with them being on the end of a three-in-three and that was only our second game, but we got it done to our credit. It was a good win.”

BRENDAN GAUNCE - ONE ASSIST

“I think we needed a couple games where we played the right way and got a win. I think sometimes you get some wins where you’re not playing the right way and you almost get a superficial feeling. I think the games we won last week and this weekend were wins where we played the right way. Those gave us some confidence where we can rely on our goalies and rely on our scoring.

“I think that’s the way we’re going to have to play to make the playoffs. The confidence grows as the games go by and that’s something that we’re really getting comfortable with.”
