HARTFORD, CT. - The Providence Bruins failed to find the scoresheet for the second consecutive game and fell to the Hartford Wolf Pack, 3-0, on Saturday night. Providence heads into the Christmas break sitting in second place in the Atlantic Division with 41 points in 33 contests. The P-Bruins outshot the Wolf Pack, 31-21 in the loss.

JAY LEACH, HEAD COACH

“It was certainly a frustrating night for us. The first period we weren’t where we wanted to be. Second and third period we really started to push.

“We just couldn’t get it past their goaltender. They obviously had a couple timely goals themselves and that’s what led to the defeat.”
